Subject 2023 Juneteenth Commemoration Program
Location MS Teams
Show Time As Busy
Dear Colleagues,

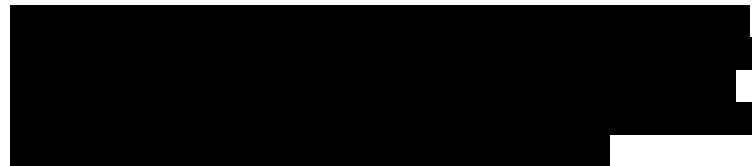

On June 19th, we celebrate Juneteenth, also known as Jubilee, Emancipation Day, or Freedom Day. It is an annual celebration of the end of slavery in America, and commemorates the moment when slaves in Galveston, Texas received the word the Civil War had ended. More than two years after President Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation, 250,000 enslaved Black Americans were finally free.

In 2021, I was honored to join President Biden as he signed the Juneteenth National Independence Day Act into law, establishing June 19th as a federal holiday.

Juneteenth is not just a celebration of the past; it calls for action today. As President Biden has said, "...it is a day that also reminds us of our incredible capacity to heal, hope, and emerge from our darkest moments with purpose and resolve."

Please join us on Wednesday, June 14 at 11 a.m. (ET) via Microsoft
